What is Tri-CETA?

There is a strong need for more job opportunities for youth ages 14-24 in the Tri-Cities areas of Alameda County. The Tri-Cities Employment Training Academy (Tri-CETA) trains youth from low to moderate-income families in the basic skills they need to prepare to enter the workforce.

At Tri-CETA, students meet twice a week for 12 weeks to learn the skills and information they need to search for, secure and maintain a

Our Blueprint Curriculum has helped hundreds of Tri-Cities youth find jobs.

Classes

Each class is taught by trained case managers and employment specialists who walk students through a step-by-step process of getting and keeping a job using a curriculum that has proven to assist hundreds of Bay Area youth find jobs. For youth ages 17—24, we also offer a GED preparation course.

Over 250 youth have completed Tri-CETA's Blueprint Curriculum, and 180 of these are currently working, a success rate of about 75%!

Course Completion

Once students have successfully completed all of the classes in 12-week period, they will be given a certificate of completion. This certificate will assist them as they approach potential employers to apply for jobs. Many will recognize our certificate and be more likely to give Tri-CETA applicants interviews.

How well the student does in their interview is dependent on their performance, but students will have continued access to their case manager, who will provide help and support throughout their job search process. And students who have completed the Blueprint course are eligible for continued assistance finding job opportunities.

Blueprint Curriculum

- Create a job search strategy
- Craft effective resumes and cover letters
- Ace your job interviews
- Understand the job market
- Communicate effectively with potential employers
- Professional etiquette and workplace behavior
- Learn to manage money effectively
- Learn about your rights at work
- Understand the connection between education and employment (jobs versus careers)
